

This is a Health Tech Revolution

Call for entries

We are delighted to announce the first AXA PPP Health Tech & You Awards 2014, recognising and commending excellence in the development of personal health technology.

We are living in an extraordinary time. New mobile and wearable health technology allows you to be aware of your health and wellbeing in an unprecedented way.

AXA PPP Health Tech & You aims to bring this health tech revolution to as many people as possible.

NOW OPEN: AXA PPP Health Tech & You Awards Nominations and Entries

The Awards are open for designers, developers and entrepreneurs to share their ideas and products; from wearable health technology to the treatment of long-term conditions.

HAVE YOUR SAY: You can now enter or make a nomination on the website:
