

The Future of Severe Asthma Care: a national workshop for respiratory leaders

Tuesday 4th July 2023

09:30-16:30

Pullman London St Pancras, 100-110 Euston Road, London, NW1 2AJ

Agenda

Time	Topic	Presenters
08:30-9:30	Registration and coffee
09:30-09:35	Welcome & introductions	Tracey Marriott, Director of Clinical Innovation Adoption & Digital Lead, Oxford AHSN
09:35-09:45	The future of respiratory services	Dr Jonathan Fuld, Consultant Physician, Cambridge University Hospitals NHS FT; Interim National Clinical Director for Respiratory Diseases, NHS England
09:45-09:55	National Asthma Biologics Programme reflections	Dr James Rose, Director of Strategic and Industry Partnerships, Oxford AHSN and National Asthma Biologics Programme Lead
09:55-10:00	A patient story	Joanne Bennell, Patient Representative
Session 1
Chair – Dr Hitasha Rupani, Consultant, University Hospitals Southampton NHS FT and National Asthma Biologics Programme Clinical Champion
10:00-10:30	Improving patient access to Biologics through Primary Care education and proactive searching	Holly Minshall, Asthma Nurse Educator, University Hospitals of North Midlands NHS Trust
	Accelerating access to specialist care for asthma patients through innovative pathway transformation	Dr Hassan Burhan, Consultant Respiratory Physician, Liverpool University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Rhiannon Clarke, Programme Manager – Patient Safety & Care Improvement Team, Innovation Agency North West Coast AHSN
	Integrated Severe Asthma Care Pathway Transformation Project	Dr Andrew Chadwick, Consultant Respiratory Physician, Oxford University Hospitals NHF FT Aleksandra Howell, Highly Advanced Integrated Respiratory Pharmacist, Integrated Severe Asthma Care Project Lead, Oxford University Hospitals NHF FT
10:30-10:55	Panel discussion	Chair – Dr Hitasha Rupani

10:55-11:25	Refreshments and networking
Session 2
Chair – Gráinne d’Ancona, Consultant Pharmacist, Respiratory Medicine Guy's and St Thomas' NHS FT; Senior Lecturer, King’s College London and National Asthma Biologics Programme Clinical Champion
11:25-12:15	Medicines don’t work if patients don’t take them: Supporting ICS adherence in asthma	Gráinne d’Ancona
	Virtual respiratory clinics for adolescents with asthma and high prescription rates for oral corticosteroids	Dr Alexandra Nanzer, Consultant Respiratory Physician, Guy’s Severe Asthma Centre, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS FT; Honorary & Adjunct Senior Lecturer, School of Immunology & Microbial Sciences, King’s College London
	Improving access to asthma biologics with enhanced case-finding and review in primary care	Dr Sherif Gonem, Consultant Respiratory Physician, Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust
	Improving Access to Biologics in Adults, Children and Young People	Dr Katy Pike, Consultant in Paediatric Respiratory Medicine, Bristol Royal Hospital for Children Clare Evans, Deputy Director of Service and System Transformation and Head of Adoption & Spread, West of England AHSN
	National Asthma Biologics Programme resources	Seema Gadhia, Pharmacy Lead, Oxford AHSN
12:15-12:40	Panel discussion	Chair – Gráinne d’Ancona
12:40-13:40	Lunch
Session 3
Chair – Beverley Bostock, Advanced Nurse Practitioner & PhD student; Asthma Lead, Association of Respiratory Nurses; Primary Care Cardiovascular Society Council Member; Editor in Chief, Practice Nurse Journal; Independent Training Consultant and National Asthma Biologics Programme Clinical Champion
13:40-14:30	Improving equity of access to patient information	Dr Llinos Jones, Consultant in Respiratory Medicine, Mid Yorkshire Teaching NHS Trust
	Tackling healthcare inequalities in asthma care	Stuart Monk, National Programme Director – AAC Programmes, AHSN Network
	Lung Health Inequalities	Laura Williamson, Policy Officer, Asthma and Lung UK
	Severe asthma and treatment with biologics: assessment of health inequalities in current services	Dr Robert Wilson, Consultant in Public Health Medicine, Specialised Commissioning, NHS England – Midlands
14:30-14:55	Panel discussion	Chair – Beverley Bostock

14:55-15:15	Refreshments and networking
Session 4 Chair – Tracey Marriott
15:15-16:20	The Accelerated Access Collaborative (AAC) Consensus Pathway including, the view from secondary care and the view from the Hub	Dr Hitasha Rupani Dr Deepak Subramanian, Respiratory Consultant & East Midlands Respiratory Network lead, University Hospitals Derby and Burton Prof David Jackson, Professor of Respiratory Medicine, King's College London; Consultant in Asthma & Eosinophilic Lung Diseases, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Trust; Clinical Lead, GSTT - South Thames - Kent Asthma Network; Guy's Severe Asthma Centre, Guy's Hospital
	Home Monitoring	Dr Hitasha Rupani Jane Stokes, Head of Customer Success, my mhealth Guy Checketts, Head of Transformation, Oxford AHSN
	The role of integrated care in improving outcomes for patients with respiratory disease	Dr Sarah Elkin, Consultant in Respiratory Medicine, Imperial College Healthcare NSF Trust; Co-Clinical Director, London Respiratory Clinical Network NHS England
	The future for commissioning specialised severe asthma services	Kathy Blacker, National Programme of Care Manager – Internal Medicine, Lead Commissioner - Specialised Respiratory CRG, Vascular Disease CRG, Specialised Rheumatology CRG, NHS England
16:20-16:25	Summary	Dr Hitasha Rupani
16:20-16:30	Closing note	Tracey Marriott
16:30	Close

Disclaimer/Sponsorship statement: With sincere thanks for sponsorship and continued support from GSK, AstraZeneca and SANOFI who have had no influence over the content of the meeting but have provided Sponsorship of meeting via promotional stands to cover room hire and food during the meeting

www.OxfordAHSN.org info@OxfordAHSN.org